Our World Belongs to God

24. God remembered his promise to reconcile the world to himself, he has come among us in Jesus Christ, the eternal Word made flesh.

He is the long-awaited Savior, fully human and fully divine, conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

25. In the events of his earthly life-his temptations and suffering his teaching and miracles, his battles with demons and talks with sinners-

Jesus made present in deed and in word the coming rule of God.

26. As the second Adam he chose the path we had rejected.

As our representative, serving God perfectly and loving even those who scorned him, Christ showed us how a righteous child of God lives.

27. As our substitute he suffered all his years on earth, especially in the horrible torture of the cross.

He carried God's judgment on our sin; his sacrifice removes our guilt.

He walked out of the grave, the Lord of life!
He conquered sin and death.

We are set right with God, we are given new life, and called to walk with him in freedom from sin's dominion.

28. Being both God and man, Jesus is the only Mediator between God and his people.

He alone paid the debt of our sin; there is no other Savior!

In him the Father chose those whom he would save.

His electing love sustains our hope: God’s grace is free to save sinners who offer nothing but their need for mercy.

29. Jesus ascended in triumph, to his heavenly throne.

There he hears our prayers, pleads our cause before the Father, and rules the world. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.
